END OF INDEX

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA COUNTY OF TEHAMA LOCAL RULES OF COURT

Parties, attorneys, and all court users should consult with California statutes, case law, and California Rules of Court in addition to Local Rules.

SECTION 1. GENERAL RULES

RULE 1. CITATION OF RULES -- EFFECTIVE DATE

These rules are effective on the date above and shall be known and cited as the "Local Rules of Court" for the Tehama County Superior Court.

[effective date: January 1, 2013; revised January 1, 2026]

RULE 2. REQUIRED NOTIFICATION FOR UNOPPOSED AND DROPPED MATTERS

If a party and/or attorney will not oppose a motion filed by opposing counsel or if the moving counsel decides to drop the matter from calendar, that party and/or attorney shall promptly so notify opposing counsel and the Court via the appropriate written filing. Violation of this rule may subject the party and/or attorney to sanctions.

[effective date: January 1, 2013; revised January 1, 2026]

RULE 3. COURT REPORTERS

A. Criminal / Juvenile Dependency / Juvenile Justice: Court reporters are provided for juvenile dependency proceedings (Welfare and Institutions Code §347 et seq.), juvenile justice proceedings (Welfare and Institutions Code §677 et seq.), and felony proceedings. In criminal matters other than felonies, court reporters are not available at the expense of the Court. In lieu thereof, a recording system is available for misdemeanor or infraction cases pursuant to Penal Code §1045 upon direct request to the Clerk of the Court no later than five days in advance of the proceedings to be recorded. Court reporters may be used in criminal, non-felony cases, but they shall be obtained by, and at the expense of, the party requesting a reporter unless otherwise ordered or arranged by the Court.

B. Civil Matters: In accordance with California Rules of Court (currently Rule 2.956) each party to a civil trial as defined in said rule must serve and file a statement at least ten calendar days in advance of the trial date, or as soon as practicable if the proceeding is set with less than 10 days' notice, stating whether that party requests the presence of an official court reporter. Parties requesting an official court reporter in a civil trial will be charged the actual cost of the court reporter fees in accordance with California Rules of Court. Parties requesting an official court reporter for the trial of a civil case will be required to deposit fees for the anticipated length of the trial or a full-day fee, whichever is less, at the time of filing said statement. A request for a reporter may be made on the record at the time of setting, and fees shall be due on the day of that request.

Counsel should check with the Court for a fee schedule of court reporter fees, which fees are in addition to any other trial court fees required by law or rule. The parties shall deposit their pro rata share of such fees as follows: (1) For hearings of less than one day, at the close of the proceeding; (2) For hearings of more than one day, at the beginning of the second and each succeeding day of the proceeding. Any fee waiver request must be submitted by filing a Request for Court Reporter by a Party with a Fee Waiver (form FW-020). If the requesting party has not been granted a fee waiver, a completed Request to Waive court Fees (form FW-001 or form FW-001-GC) must be filed at the same time as the request for court reporter. Parties should file the request 10 calendar days before the proceedings for which a court reporter is desired, or as soon as practicable if the proceeding is set with less than 10 days' notice.

A failure to post fees as required may result in a discontinuation of the proceedings, an absence of a court reporter at the proceeding, a court order or citation to the attorney who failed to pay, or such other orders as necessary.

[effective date: January 1, 2013; revised January 1, 2026]

RULE 4. PHOTOGRAPHING OR RECORDING COURT PROCEEDINGS AND WITHIN THE COURTHOUSE

Photographing or recording any court proceeding is prohibited unless a written request made in advance of the proceeding is provided to and approved by the Judicial Officer overseeing the hearing, pursuant to law and CRC 1.150.

Unless otherwise approved by the Presiding Judge, no filming, videotaping, photographing, and/or electronic recording is permitted in any area of the courthouse, including, but not limited to, entrances, exits, and hallways. Application for filming, videotaping, photography, and recording in said areas shall be directed to the Presiding Judge or his/her designee. [effective date: January 1, 2013, revised January 1, 2026]

RULE 5. RESTRAINING ORDERS

- 1. General. Restraining orders shall be governed by the California Code and Rules, except as clarified below.
- 2. Ex-Parte Orders. A party seeking an ex-parte order must notify all parties no later than 10:00 a.m. the court day before the ex-parte appearance, absent a showing of exceptional circumstances that justify a shorter time for notice. The person giving such notice shall state with specificity the nature of the relief to be requested and the date, time, and place for the presentation of the application; and shall attempt to determine whether the opposing party will appear to oppose the application. The declaration regarding notice shall include the date, time, and manner of notice, and shall identify the name of the party informed and any response. If notice was not completed, the declaration shall further state that the applicant in good faith attempted to inform the opposing party but was unable to do so, specifying the efforts made to inform the opposing party or that, for reasons specified, the applicant should not be required to inform the opposing party. A judge makes determinations re notice, and no clerk shall reject a filing because of inadequate notice. (Current California Rules of Court controlling notice include: 3.1203 – 3.1205).

- 3. Duty of Party Requesting Order. Any party seeking a restraining order (temporary, preliminary or permanent and including but not limited to Domestic Violence and Harassment restraining orders) shall in its first filed paper identify any unexpired restraining orders [criminal, family law, juvenile, and orders of any other court] in which any party requesting relief has: (1) previously obtained a restraining order against any other party and (2) previously been restrained by any other party.

  The Court may issue sanctions against any party not complying with this requirement.
- 4. Conflict. Current California Rule of Court, Rule 5.450, is referenced as to conflicts. Courts issuing restraining orders shall make reasonable efforts to determine whether there are any current, unexpired restraining orders against or in favor of any party seeking relief.

[effective date: January 1, 2013; revised January 1, 2026]

RULE 6. CASE DISPOSITION TIME STANDARDS AND GOALS

Consistent with existing law, it is the policy of this Court to encourage prompt disposition of all matters. Attorneys shall promptly complete discovery and motions towards the end of completing cases within the following time limits. Attorneys must show good cause, in writing, to exempt a case from delay reduction standards.

- A. Case Disposition Standards: The standard sought for all cases is as follows:
  - (1) Civil Cases: Within one year of filing unless the Court designates the completion date as two or three years.
  - (2) Misdemeanor Cases: Within 90 days of the defendant's first court appearance.
  - (3) Preliminary Hearings: Within 10 calendar days or 60 court days from the defendant's first appearance.
  - (4) Felony Trials: Except for capital cases, within 60 days of the defendant's arraignment on the information.
- B. Case Disposition Goals: Consistent with the California Rules of Court and the Case Disposition Standards cited above, the goal of this Court is to complete all civil cases as follows. Civil completion goals are measured from the date of filing. Criminal completion goals are measured from the date of arraignment.
  - (1) Unlimited civil cases: (a) 75 percent within 12 months; (b) 85 percent within 18 months; and (c) 100 percent within 24 months.
  - (2) Limited civil cases: (a) 90 percent within 12 months; (b) 98 percent within 18 months; and (c) 100 percent within 24 months.
  - (3) Small claims cases: (a) 90 percent within 75 days; and (b) 100 percent within 100 days.
  - (4) Felony trials: Except for capital cases, no more than one year after arraignment on the information.

(5) Preliminary Hearings, from arraignment on the complaint and excluding death penalty cases: (a) 90 percent within 30 days; (b) 98 percent within 45 days; and (c) 100 percent within 90 days.

(6) Misdemeanor cases: (a) 90 percent within 30 days; (b) 98 percent within 90 days; and (c) 100 percent within 120 days.

These case management goals are guidelines. In managing individual civil cases, the Court will consider each case on its merits. To enable the fair and efficient resolution of civil cases, each case should be set for trial as soon as appropriate for that individual case.

[effective date: January 1, 2013]

RULE 14. EVALUATORS AND CHILD CUSTODY RECOMMENDING COUNSELORS (CCRC, formerly referred to as mediators)

A. Evaluators

If an evaluator is appointed, he or she shall be provided prior to commencing the evaluation process with a copy of the court order which specifies the appointment of the evaluator under relevant statutes, including the following statutes in effect at the time of adoption of these rules: Evidence Code § 730, Family Code § 3110, or CCP § 2032. The evaluator shall comply with this rule and applicable law and shall submit form FL-326 (or its successor form) with regard to training and educational requirements. Any fees proper under law shall be assessed accordingly by the Court.

B. Mandatory Mediation

Absent a finding of good cause to the contrary, all matters pertaining to custody and/or visitation shall be referred to the Child Custody Recommending Counselor (CCRC) at the earliest possible time. Court designated Child Custody Recommending Counselors are hereby authorized to render a recommendation to the Court as to the custody or visitation of the child or children involved. The Court may, without foundation, consider the report and recommendation of the CCRC. Parties referred to mediation shall attend the Parent Orientation class and shall promptly keep all appointments with the mediator and make a good faith effort to come to an agreement on custody and visitation. Notice of appointment may be accomplished by service on the CCRC and parties of the minute order appointing him/her. In court, notice to an appearing party is sufficient without written notice. Any appointed CCRC shall adhere to Code and California Rules pertaining to mediators.

C. Investigation by the Mediator

The court "mediator" is a "court appointed investigator" as that term is used in Family Code § 3110. The mediator may, without further court order, conduct an investigation regarding the issues of child custody and visitation pursuant to Family Code § 3110 et seq. in any proceeding where the parties fail to agree on the issues of custody and visitation or where it may otherwise be warranted.

D. Mediator: Ex-Parte Communications

As more fully stated in Rule 5.235 of the California Rules of Court and Family Code Section 216, when certain ex-parte communications are permitted by the mediator, any such communications outside of those as described in the Rule or Family Code Section shall be in writing and shall be served on the opposing party. This requirement does not apply to communications by parties made to the mediator during a mediation session or to ex-parte communications initiated by the mediator.

E. Removal / Withdrawal of the Mediator

The mediator may remove him or herself from a case should mediation ethics require. The assignment of a mediator being a court function, there shall be no challenge allowed to the mediator by a party unless same is specifically allowed by law. The Director of Family Court Services, the Court Executive Officer, the Presiding Judge, or the judge presiding over the proceedings may in his/her discretion permit another CCRC to conduct mediation, which may be a mediator from another court, a probation officer, or such other person whom the Director, Court Executive Officer or judge finds qualified to act as mediator.

F. Recommendations of the Child Custody Recommending Counselor (CCRC) The mediator is authorized to render a recommendation to the Court regarding custody and visitation. The Court may, without foundation, consider the report and recommendation of the mediator.

G. Challenges to the Mediator

Statutes, case law, and the California Rules of Court (including Rule 5.445) control any challenge to a court appointed evaluator. Complaints concerning an evaluator shall be submitted in writing to the Court Executive Officer who is designated as the complaint coordinator. Complaints shall be in writing and shall be served on opposing counsel and on self-represented litigants. Such complaints shall be evaluated and appropriate action taken within 10 days of receipt. There shall be no ex-parte communications with the mediator except as specifically requested by the mediator. Parties should inquire of and use any complaint form maintained by the court administration.

H. Testimony / Confidentiality of File

Should any party seek to examine the mediator at a hearing regarding a mediator recommendation, it shall be that party's responsibility to secure the mediator's attendance as a witness. Any information received by the mediator including, but not limited to, information included in the mediation report shall be confidential and may be disclosed by the mediator only as necessary to continue his/her investigation, to complete his/her report, and to testify in any court hearing. [effective date: January 1, 2013]

Supervised visitation providers have several legal responsibilities and duties under Family Code section 3200.5 and Standard 5.20 of the California Standards of Judicial Administration (Uniform Standards of Practice for Providers of Supervised Visitation). Providers should be familiar with all requirements. In addition, the following obligations must be satisfied.
- 2. A "professional provider," as defined in Family Code section 3200.5, is any person who is paid for providing supervised visitation services, or an independent contractor, employee, intern, or volunteer operating independently or through a supervised visitation center or agency. See Standard 5.20(b)(2).

The FL-324(P) and documentation must be submitted by the first week of January each year for professional providers already included on the list. This form will be maintained by Family Court Services.
- (b) Family Court Services will maintain a list of providers who have submitted form FL-324(P) and documentation in the past year. The Court maintains the discretion to add or remove providers from the list based upon the needs of the court but does not endorse, evaluate, supervise, or monitor the listed providers or their facilities.

- (c) Filed forms FL-324(P) shall be confidential and unavailable to any person except the court, the parties, their attorneys and any person to whom the court expressly grants access by written order made with prior notice to all parties.
  - 4. Professional visitation provider submission of visitation reports:
- (a) The court is to be included in each distribution of visit reports by the provider. The original report shall be mailed, or hand delivered to the court clerk's office. In addition to the court copy, all reports are to be sent to all parties, their attorneys and the attorney for the child. See Standard 5.20(j)(3).
- (b) An updated copy of the provider's FL-324(P) shall be resubmitted with each visitation report. See Standard 5.20(e)(14).
  - 5. Nonprofessional Supervised Visitation Providers' Obligations:

  Judicial Council Form (FL-324(NP)) stating that all requirements to be a nonprofessional provider have been met before serving as a visitation provider. See Standard 5.20(d)(3).
- (b) If a nonprofessional provider will be used, the parents should inform the court and file the FL-324(NP) form with the court. The Declaration (FL-324(NP)) can be obtained at Family Court Services, Self Help Center, or www.courts.ca.gov.
- (c) Filed forms FL-324(P) and FL-324(NP) shall be confidential and unavailable to any person except the court, the parties, their attorneys and any person to whom the court expressly grants access by written order made with prior notice to all parties.

(d) Non-professional Visitation providers are encouraged to review The Judicial Council's guide for Non-professional providers:

http://courts.ca.gov/publication/guide-non-professional-provider-supervisedvisitation-booklet

(e) All Visitation Providers are encouraged to review the material available in the California Rules of Court: Standards of Judicial Administration regarding the role and duties of a visitation provider/monitor.

SECTION 4. JUVENILE COURT RULES

RULE 15. CASA

A. Adoption of CASA Program

- 1. The court hereby adopts the guidelines for the Court Appointed Special Advocate Program (CASA) as more particularly set forth in Welfare and Institutions Code Sections 100 through 110, inclusive, and Rule 5.655 of the California Rules of Court.
- 2. The CASA Program shall report regularly to the presiding judge of the Juvenile court with evidence that it is operating under the guidelines established by the National Court Appointed Special Advocate Association and the California State Guidelines for child advocates.

B. Release of Information to CASA

1. To accomplish the appointment of a CASA, the judge, commissioner or referee making the appointment shall sign an order granting the CASA the authority to review specific relevant documents and interview parties involved in the case, as well as other persons having significant information relating to the child, to the same extent as any other officer appointed to investigate proceedings on behalf of the court.

2. The CASA shall have the same legal right to records relating to the child he or she is appointed to represent as any case manager (social worker or probation officer) regarding records pertaining to the child held by an agency, school, organization, division or department of the State, physician, surgeon, nurse, other health care provider, psychologist, psychiatrist, mental health provider or law enforcement agency. The CASA shall present a copy of his or her appointment order together with his or her identification to the provider to gain access to the requested information. No consent from the parent or guardian is necessary for the CASA to have access to any records related to the child.

C. Right to Timely Notice and Right to Appear

- 1. Whenever any motion is made, or a supplemental or subsequent petition filed, concerning the child for whom the CASA has been appointed, the moving party shall provide the CASA with timely notice.
- 2. A CASA shall have the right to be present and be heard at all court hearings and shall not be subject to exclusion by virtue of the fact that he or she may be called to testify at some point in the proceedings. A CASA is not a party to the dependency proceedings. However, the Court, at its discretion, shall have the authority to grant the CASA amicus curiae status, which includes the right to appear with counsel.

D. Calendar Priority

In light of the fact that CASAs are rendering a volunteer service to children and the Court, matters on which they appear should be granted priority on the Court's calendar whenever possible.

E. CASA Reports

CASA reports shall be filed with the court at least three (3) court days prior to

Mandatory Court Rules Superior Court of California

County of Tehama

the hearing. The CASA program shall provide a copy of the report to all counsel of record at least three (3) court days before the hearing.

[effective date: January 1, 2015]

5.660 and related standards of training and experience.

B. Expectations

1. Attorneys are expected to meet regularly with clients, including children, contact social workers and other professionals associated with the client's case, work with other counsel and the court to resolve disputed issues without hearing, and adhere to mandated timelines.

2. All attorneys retained, assigned or appointed are required to adhere to the timelines and the procedures stated elsewhere in these rules for settlements, discovery,
